About Sibiu

Sibiu is a city in Transylvania, a historical region of Romania. Located approximately 275 km north-west of the country's capital, Bucharest, the city straddles the Cibin River, a tributary of the river Olt. The name of the city derives from its Latin name of Cibinium, which is also the source of the Cibin river's name.

It is the Capital of the Sibiu County and between 1692-1791 and 1849–65 it was also the capital of the Principality of Transylvania.

Nicknamed The City with Eyes, the city is a well-known tourist destination for both domestic and foreign visitors. Known for its culture, history, gastronomy and diverse architecture, which includes the iconic houses with eyes that gave Sibiu its nickname, the city has gained significant attention since the beginning of the 21st Century.

In 2004, its historical center began the process of becoming a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Sibiu was designated the European Capital of Culture in 2007, the first Eastern European City to have this statute. One year later, it was ranked "Europe's 8th-most idyllic place to live" by Forbes.

The Lake Binder Cable Park is situated 5 minutes away by bike from the Historical Center of the city, that includes lots of bars, pubs and restaurants as well as lots of tourist objectives and where you can get a feeling of the city's boosting nightlife.
